

Marina Perez
Chief Executive of Education and Development
The BridgePath

Marina.Perez@thebridgepath.org

Marina Perez has over two decades of experience in the Personal Finance and Credit industry. Throughout her career, she has provided hundreds of Financial Education presentations using her Bilingual skill set. Her experience and expertise have the capacity to cover a wide range of financial education topics such as Budgeting, Savings, Credit and Small business/entrepreneurship mentoring.

Perez is a Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) certified counselor and received her Neighborworks certification related to prevention and foreclosure mediation and is recognized as a credit authority. As a Housing Urban Development (HUD) certified counselor, she's has delivered the eight (8) hours First Time Home Buyer seminar to hundreds of Low to moderate income (LMI) individuals and families. Her experience and expertise make her a sought-after spokesperson and presenter locally and statewide.

As mentioned before, in recent years, Perez has focused her attention and expertise to helping small business owners/entrepreneurs understand the importance and correlation between personal credit and business credit. Perez also offers confidential one-on-one mentoring.