

Alva Kattan,
Alpha Omega Group, Inc.

Alva Kattan, BBA Founder/CEO Alpha Omega Tax & Insurance Group, Inc.

Alva Kattan is the Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Alpha Omega Tax & Insurance Group, Inc., a very successful organization serving the local Houston community for over nine years with various offices in the local Houston and surrounding areas.

Alva is also an Entrepreneur, a Visionary, advocate, and an active Hispanic Community Leader, with the vision of contributing to the growth of our local Houston Hispanic Community. She serves on various non-for-profit organizations at various capacities such as an advocate for children with special needs, disabilities, and their rights. Alva is the official correspondent for the General Consulate of Mexico. She is also an active member of the Latin Chamber of Entrepreneurs (Camara de Empresarios), under the leadership of Adriana Gonzalez. Alva is the official Gala sponsorship spokesperson. She is also a radio talk show host for various radio show programs with the focus to educate, empower, and contribute to the success of the Latino Community; the show airs on one of Univision radio platforms. Alva was elected by the Senator's Office for the Troy Blando Act (AABPTA, Grant), under the mandate of Harris County Tax Assessor Collector Don Summers, to serve as an active industry board voting member for Harris County in collaboration with Harris County Sherriff's Office under the mandate of Harris County Sheriff, Adrian Garcia.

Alva received her Bachelor of Business Administration from the University of Houston, C. T. Bauer School of Business; she was one of twenty-two graduates of the nationally recognized Wolff Center for Entrepreneurship program.

Alva is an established community leader and advocate. She has numerous recognition's including an 18th District Congressional Recognition for her contribution to our local Houston community.