

Before joining the Small Business Administration (SBA), Ms. Maldonado worked for the U.S. Postal Services, General Services Administration (GSA) Engineering Division; and after started with SBA New York City District Office as a Paralegal. Relocated to SBA Houston office and has held various positions; including Paralegal Specialist, Loan Processing Assistant; Business Development-Marketing and Outreach and now works as a Lender Relations Specialist (LRS). As an (LRS) ultimate goal is to optimize the deployment of SBA loan programs.

Ms. Maldonado is also the District International Trade Officer (DITO) critical to the expansion of SBA export loans programs for business starting or expanding to exports. She is the primary District resource and point of contact for international trade inquiries and coordination of external activities. Promotes SBA State Trade Expansion Program (STEP) for export grantees; she works closely with EX-IM Bank, U.S Commercial Services, Port of Houston), State, County, Regional, City, Education and non-profit agencies and strategic partners to provide education, training and export benefits.

Born in Barranquitas, Puerto Rico and raised in New York City; she obtain a Paralegal Certificate from CUNY and has a Bachelor's of Science (BS) Degree in Information System Technology from the University of Houston.